The Fisherman's Tale

Peter overhears Jesus speaking to the crowds...

It sounds great . .

... but, like many, is too busy.

. . but it doesn't pay
the bills!

Jesus needs a boat. Peter has a boat, is a captive audience...

... and realises that this teacher makes sense!

Hmm! . . . that makes sense.

Jesus suggests they drop the nets in the middle of the day

... and Peter thinks "You cannot be serious!" but does so anyway.

There is a miraculous catch of fish.

It's a miracle!

Peter sees first hand the power of Jesus, glimpses his greatness...

... and is painfully aware of his own sinfulness.

Jesus, to Peter's amazement, promises Peter can go with him...

... and Peter, overwhelmed with joy, drops everything to follow.
